The competition to build the most over-the-top spec house just got an impressive new entrant: A $35 million home in Los Angeles with a sit-in shark tank.

In the Hollywood Hills, the newly built home has a roughly 300-gallon indoor tank containing around 8 sharks, including houndsharks, a catshark, a remora shark and a horn shark, plus stingrays and other fish. The tank is about 3 feet deep, with steps that lead to a platform in the center where residents can sit and watch the sharks. Adjacent to the tank is a "living wall..."
